

Project Workshop

New Cities, New Orders?

The Problem of Security in

East Central European Cities

Łódź, 1-3 December 2022

PROGRAMME

The workshop is organized within the DFG Collaborative Research Centre/Transregio 138 Dynamics of Security. Types of Securitization from a Historical Perspective; subproject A06 Securitization and Discourses on the Rights of Minorities in Central Europe in 19th and 20th century.

Thursday, Dec. 1

Faculty of Philosophy and History
Kamińskiego 27a
Main Conference Room, 1st floor

6:00 pm

Book Launch:

Lodz - Geschichte einer multikulturellen Industriestadt im 20. Jahrhundert
(in Polish)

Chair:

Andrzej Czyżewski PhD
University of Lodz

Participants:

Prof. Hans-Jürgen Bömelburg
Justus-Liebig-Universität Gießen

Prof. Jarosław Kita
University of Lodz

Prof. Krzysztof Lesiakowski
University of Lodz

Friday, Dec. 2

Faculty of Philology
Pomorska 171/173
Room 2.43, 2nd floor

9:00 am

Opening

9:15 am

Keynote lecture:

Multilingualism in late 19th-century Łódź and Lviv: Language conflict or coexistence?

Prof. Jan Fellerer
University of Oxford

10:30 - 11:00 am

Coffee Break

11:00 am

Session no 1:

Industrialization, Language Issues, and Securitization Processes in Pilsen 1860-1914

Participants:

Kajetan Stobiecki MA

Herder Institute for Historical Research on East Central Europe

David Smrček MA

Charles University/University of Vienna

Christoph Mauerer BA

University of West Bohemia in Pilsen

1:00 - 3:00 pm

Lunch Break

3:00 pm

Session no 2:

Fostering Identities in a Multilingual Petroleum Boom Town through Securitization: Strategies and Local Policies in Drohobycz before 1918

Participants:

Aaron Blüm MA

*Herder Institute for Historical Research
on East Central Europe*

PD Dr. Stefaniya Ptashnyk

Heidelberger Akademie der Wissenschaften

Prof. Felix Ackermann
FernUniversität in Hagen

5:00 - 5:30 pm

Coffee Break

5:30 pm

Panel Discussion:

New Cities, New Orders? The Problem of Security in East Central European Cities

Chair:

Aleksandra Sylburska PhD
University of Lodz

Participants:

Prof. Peter Haslinger
*Herder Institute for Historical Research
on East Central Europe /
Justus-Liebig-Universität Gießen*

PD Dr. Heidi Hein-Kircher
*Herder Institute for Historical Research
on East Central Europe /
Philipps-Universität Marburg*

Kamil Śmiechowski PhD
University of Lodz

7:00 pm

Dinner

Saturday, Dec. 3

Faculty of Philosophy and History,
Kamińskiego 27a
Room 202, 2nd floor

9:00 am

Session no 3:

Linguistic and Literary Image of Changes in East Central European Cities

Chair:

Piotr Krężel PhD
University of Lodz

Participants:

Prof. Małgorzata Domagalska
University of Lodz

Oksana Lebedivna MA
National University of Kyiv-Mobyla Academy

Liudmyla Pidkuimukha PhD
Justus-Liebig-Universität Gießen

10:30 11:00 am

Coffee Break

11:00 am

Session no 4:

Security in the "Evil City": The Multilingual Textile Metropolis Lodz 1860-1918 in the Focus of Social and National Conflicts

Participants:

Lukas Pohl MA
Justus-Liebig-Universität Gießen

Wiktoria Marzec PhD
University of Warsaw

Marcin Szymański PhD
University of Lodz

1:00 pm

Summary

Prof. Hans-Jürgen Bömelburg
Justus-Liebig-Universität Gießen

2:00 pm

Lunch and Guided Tour in the Poznański's Factory Complex (Manufaktura / Museum of the City of Łódź)

oraz

Centrum Jerzego Giedroycia UŁ